To one whom I admired very much. Almost as much as my sister.
"Not quite!"

V. M. M. M.

Dear Marge:
One reason I hate to leave school is leaving behind me
lots of friends & family.
I love you & family.
I love you & family.

Best Wishes
to you, beautiful!

Dear Helen,
I shall always think of you as the best thing
I have had the pleasure to meet.
I shall think of you
as my right hand
woman or something.
Of course I shall never say that you can also be burnt up very easily.
Am I right or am I right?
You also like to hear certain people make sarcastic remarks so it seems.
just as much.

DEDICATION

• • •

To the activity which gives life to that inert mass of stone, the school building; to the spirit of work and play that animates ghostly and echoing corridors; to the soul of creative youth that climbs to learning . . . to these the makers of our book we, the compilers, dedicate its pages.

FOREWORD

• • •

"The school gives us comradeship, the outlook on the hopes and aspirations of our fellows. It opens to us the resources of young life, the luminous visions of the boys and girls who are to be men and women. . . . In the school, life is in the making, and with the great we are making our own lives with the richest materials ever at hand."

DAVID STARR JORDAN

I have liked you ever since I first saw you the first time I saw you

THE BRIDGE BUILDER

An old man going down Life's highway
Came at evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm, vast and deep and wide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim —
The sullen stream had no fears for him,
But burned when he reached the farther side,
To build a bridge across the tide.

"Old man", quoth a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting your strength in building here;
You never again will come this way,
Your journey will end with the ending day,
You have crossed the river deep and wide,
Why build a bridge across the tide?"

"Good friend, in the path I have come this day,
There followeth after me, they say,
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This stream which has no fears for me,
To that fair boy may a pitfall be;
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
I am building this bridge, my friend, for him".

FOOTBALL SQUAD

Teams may come and teams may go, but the 1933 team will always be remembered as one that did its best regardless of odds. In spite of two setbacks through one season, the old zip and pep were never lost, and after all, that is what really counts. Only one of these defeats was decisive, and that was suffered at the hands of the city champions.

Of course, after a rather successful season, the coaches always give the players the credit, and the players always give the coaches credit. But in this case, both should receive an equal share of the praise. The coaches worked hard day and night, the boys worked hard, first on their studies, and then on football. Lincoln had the largest squad turn out that it had ever had. This should be some gratification to the coaching staff.

The players went to the field every night for over two months, rain or shine, sleet or snow. They gave up a Saturday that they might all do or die "for the honor of the school." These boys look mighty fine now, but think of all the hard work they had to do to get there, and then say to yourself, "All hail the mighty."

LINCOLN-WEST GAME

This was the most thrilling game Lincoln has played since the championship game with South in 1929.

LINCOLN-WAUKESHA GAME

In their first night game ever played, Lincoln defeated Waukesha High, 15-0. The game was one of many spectacular plays.

LINCOLN-WASHINGTON GAME

Washington defeated Lincoln by one point 7-6. An exciting game in which a point after touchdown that Washington made, but Lincoln failed to make, spelled defeat.

LINCOLN-TECH GAME

After being held scoreless in the first quarter and held to one touchdown in the second, a powerful Lincoln team charged up and down the field in the second half to swamp Tech, 25-6.

LINCOLN-RIVERSIDE GAME

Riverside High defeated Lincoln in one of the season's thrillers. The game was hard fought although the score of 27-0 does not bear out that theory.

LINCOLN-SHOREWOOD GAME

Lincoln chalked up their fourth victory of the season on the Shorewood field when they rode roughshod over the Gold-coasters.

LINCOLN-BAY VIEW

Lincoln trimmed the far Southsiders 19-0, to partially avenge last year's defeat at their hands. The game was hard fought but the Bay Viewites were hopelessly out-classed.

LINCOLN-SOUTH

Lincoln added another victim, South, to her long list when she trimmed the Red and White color bearers in a well played game.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

For the next year at least, the championship of the Milwaukee High School Basketball Conference will remain at Lincoln. By defeating all of the teams in the Conference except Tech, Lincoln proved its superiority over the rest of the contenders.

Just a glance at Lincoln's record over a period of about fifteen months shows how far superior to any other team in the city they really are. Last year the Conference was divided into two circuits, the southern and the northern. Lincoln won the championship of the southern circuit with a record of six victories and no defeats. Then in the championship game at the Marquette gym, they defeated Washington to win the undisputed title. This year they had continued their winning streak to thirteen games when Tech defeated them, the first defeat a Lincoln High Basketball team ever had. Thus their record for two years is one game lost and fourteen won.

GIRLS' GYM ACTIVITIES

Down in girls' gym there is sport going on all the time. Tennis, volley ball, basketball, baseball, dancing, and many other activities find their due share of fair supporters.

There were eight teams in the volley ball league, and although one team held the spotlight, the others were always "up and at 'em". Our own Irma Erlicher was the captain of the winning team, the other members of the team being Virginia Kossian, Agnes Erlicher, Josephine Spicuzza, Eleanor Heinritz, Harriet Pfersch, Irene Williamson, Patrina Greco. The runners up to title were captained by Doris Rotroff with Bonita De Nomine, Lucille Besasie, Birdeen Block, Grace Carpenter, Mary Louise Keeley, Virginia Keeley, Lauretta Keller comprising the rest of the team.

In basketball, the girls had a six team league, with a lively group of girls on each team. The winning team in this league had Rita Viola as their captain with this fine aggregation pictured here making up the rest of the lineup.

THE GYM TEAM

Here is a group of young fellows that are working and learning all the time. The team engages in only one meet a year, but they practice the year 'round. The members of the team are John Ellingsen, Frank Gregoria, Tony Micale, Lawrence Ryan, Joe Megna, Tony Varisco, Kenneth Zinda, Frank Busalacci.

SWIMMING TEAM

The swimming team, although they have not won anything this year, provide material for next year's team. With a little of that old Lincoln backing, this group can demonstrate the spirit that won the enviable position of our basketball team.

COACHES

Mr. Foote

Mr. Carroll

Coach Ronald Foot had a small but well balanced track squad. Many of the members were sophomores and juniors. This should mean full ranks in future squads.

Outstanding members of the 1933 squad were Mose Kleckly, one of the best dashmen in the city; Ralph Morgan, who starred in the broad jump, high jump, and dashes; James Harris, who was a leading pole vault and hurdle man; and Bob Sebbo in the shot and discus.

Other members of the squad who deserve mention are Dave Holland—dashes; Jack Harris—mile; John Dye—shot and discus; Brodell—dashes; Emil Trinitapoli, who broke the school record in the mile; Earl Vierch and Prohl who showed up well in the pole vault; and Peter Metrusopoulous, who did well in the high jump.

Lincoln's relay team of Morgan, Holland, Brodell, and Kleckly ran second to the fast Bay View team. Although the track team did not come through with many victories, its showing in all meets was a good one, a prophetic one.

MAN AND WORK « « AN ENDLESS PROCESSION

James Villarejo

It's strange to think that we now stand
Before the portals of a land
That's fraught with agony and woe,
And fear, and cares, and strife — yet though
We see and know what lies before,
We look with hope through the open door.

We look with hope it's true; for now
Our hearts are laden, as a bough
Of luscious fruits, with youth's desires.
We hope that we will fan the fires
Of truth, of happiness, of peace,
And never from our life's labors cease.

But should we falter on our way,
We know behind us, day by day,
An army grows, and with each stride
Grows stronger — and there at its side
A host of workers grows apace
And when we fall, they will take our place.

Dear Margaret:

at this moment I am in your house - pleasant - But I must wish you all the happiness that this wide world can give a "good girl"

Sol Jacobs

P.S. "Come up sometime."

Dear Margaret,
may your life now move on happy as a candy one.
Margaret Barrett

I wish you all the luck in the world.

Dear Helen
I'll be seeing more of you.
Helen

To the Chris sisters I wish them all the luck in the world.
Caroline Brund.

I wonder just how many times you did go home from the water front with barking dogs.

Evan Haynes

Look I hope

you are well and happy

With love to all

To a charming the girl who puts on no airs —

Clair Hawthorne

To Margaret who knew so much about the theater yet knew so little and. — — To Helen who vied for honors with her Trojan sister —

Albe Meltzer

hope to see you a lot on the beach
this summer.
Love,
Mignon
